Appendix.

Petition of Pierre Baudouin to Governor Andross. (MAINE HIST. SOC. 1849.)

(THE ORIGINAL IN FRENCH.)

To His Excellency the Governor-in-chief of New England humbly prays Pierre Baudouin saying: that having been obliged by the rigors which were exercised towards the protestants in France, to depart thence with my family, and having sought refuge in the realm of Ireland, at the city of Dublin, to which place it pleased the Receiver of His Majesty's Customs to admit him, your petitioner was employed in one of the bureaux; but afterwards, there being a change of officers, he was left without any employment. This was what caused the petitioner and his family, to the number of six persons, to withdraw into this territory, in the town of Casco and province of Maine; and seeing that there are many lands which are not occupied, and particularly those which are situated at the point of Barbary Creek may it please Your Excellency to decree that there may be assigned to your petitioner about one hundred acres, to the end that he may have the means of supporting his family. And he will continue to pray God for the health of Your Excellency.

PIERRE BAUDOUIN.

Will of James III Bowdoin. (PROBATE OFF^{CE}, SUFFOLK CO MASS.)

In the name of God Amen. I James Bowdoin of Boston in the county of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts Esquire being of sound disposing mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of Life. Do make this my last Will and Testament in manner following.—To Wit —

My Funeral expenses and just debts, if any, being first to be paid I do give and devise all my Real and Personal estate as follows— And altho my worthy and affectionate wife Sarah Bowdoin stands first in my mind to be provided for, yet for sake of arrangement I herein make sundry prior bequests and provisions. First I give to Bowdoin College in the District of Maine all my pictures excepting family pictures and all my Library consisting of about three thousand Volumes and my collection of Minerals, Globes, telescopes & Philosophical apparatus and I give to the president of said College the Reverend Jesse Appleton Fifty Pounds Sterling. Secondly— I give to the poor of Brattle Street Church in said Boston fifty pounds Sterling and to the Reverend Joseph S. Buckminster Minister thereof another sum of fifty pounds Sterling.— Thirdly— I give to my Nephew Sir Grenville Temple and to each of my nieces Mrs. Elizabeth Bowdoin Winthrop and Mrs. Augusta Palmer one hundred pounds Sterling to each of them; And I give one hundred pounds sterling to George Sullivan of said Boston Esquire.— Fifthly— I give and devise unto my Nephew James Temple Bowdoin for and during the term of his natural life my Mansion House in Beacon Street in said Boston and the furniture of the drawing room therein with the Stables and Land unto said Mansion House belonging, Also all my Islands Lands Farms & Estate in Chilmark in the County of Dukes County in said Commonwealth with the Houses, buildings, Stores, Salt works and appurtenances, farming Tools and Stock of every kind on said Lands & estate with the furniture in the Houses on said Lands, also my right and estate in a piece of land held in common with Joseph Parker containing about three Acres more or less lying within Woods hole neck, To hold what I have thus given and devised to said James Temple Bowdoin for and during the term of his natural life and from and after the determination of that estate by forfeiture or otherwise I give the same to Thomas Lindall Winthrop and Richard Sullivan of said Boston Esquires and to their heirs in trust only to preserve and support the contingent remainders and uses herein after limited from being defeated barred or destroyed ; and for that purpose from time to time and at all times to make entries and bring Actions as occasion may require nevertheless to permit and suffer the said James Temple Bowdoin to receive the rents issues and profits thereof for and during the term of his natural life, and from and immediately after his decease, I give and devise all the foregoing estates so given to him for life, unto and to the use and behoof of the first son lawfully begotten or to be begotten of the said James Temple Bowdoin, and the heirs male of the Body of such first son lawfully issuing ; and for default of such issue to the use and behoof of the second, third, and all other son and sons of said James Temple Bowdoin and the heirs male of the body or bodies of such second third and other son or sons lawfully begotten or to be begotten severally and successively as they shall be in seniority of age and priority of birth that is to say, the oldest of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies being always to be preferred before the youngest of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies lawfully to be begotten and for default of such issue then I give and devise said Estates so given to said James Temple Bowdoin for life unto my other Nephew James Bowdoin Winthrop now of Harvard College in Cambridge, he dropping the name of Winthrop, for and during the term of his natural Life and from and immediately after the determination of that his estate by forfeiture or otherwise, I give and devise the same unto said Thomas Lindal Winthrop and Richard Sullivan and to their heirs in trust only to preserve and support the contingent remainders and uses herein after limited from being defeated, barred or destroyed, and for that purpose from time to time to make entries, but to suffer said James Bowdoin Winthrop to receive the rents and profits thereof during the term of his natural life and at his decease I give and devise the same Mansion House and lands in Boston and Islands and estates (described in the devise to said James Temple) unto and to the use and behoof of the first

son lawfully begotten of said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully issuing and for default of such issue to the use of the second third and other sons of said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body of each of them in succession & manner as before limited to the male issue of said James Temple, and for default of any such male issue of said James Temple and of said James Bowdoin Winthrop then I give and devise the said Estates in Boston and in the County of Dukes County and Woods hole, with their Stock furniture and appurtenances before described unto the aforesaid Bowdoin College in fee simple forever.—Sixthly —I give and devise to my said Nephew James Temple Bowdoin and to his heirs in fee simple my Estate in State Street and Kilby Street formerly called the Bunch of Grapes Tavern, also my Brick House and small Brick tenements in Back Street and Richmond Street all in said Boston, and all the foregoing gifts and devises which I have thus made to him are under the hope and expectation that he will return to and continue to be a Citizen of the United States.—Seventhly —I give and devise to my Nephew James Bowdoin Winthrop, he dropping the name of Winthrop, for and during his life all that tract of land situated in Bowdoinham in the County of Lincoln of which I am proprietor contained within the Grants Lots so called numbered nine and ten together with the Houses, buildings, Stock, emplements and appurtenances thereof excepting two thousand Acres of the part thereof that be best spared in the opinion of the Judge of Probate for that County which I authorize said James Bowdoin Winthrop (then Bowdoin) to sell by proper deeds of conveyance for the extending improvements on the residue and to enable him to build a House for himself and family — and the said tract of land excepting the part he shall so sell I give and devise to him, for and during the term of his natural life and from and immediately after the determination of that estate by forfeiture or otherwise, I give and devise the same to said Thomas Lindal Winthrop and Richard Sullivan Esquires and to their heirs in trust only to preserve and support the contingent remainders and uses herein after limited from being defeated barred or destroyed, and for that purpose from time to time and at all times to make entries and bring actions as occasion may require; nevertheless to permit and suffer the said James Bowdoin Winthrop to receive the rents issues and profits thereof for and during the term of his natural life; and from and immediately after the decease of said James Bowdoin Winthrop I give and devise said Estate in Bowdoinham except what he shall sell as aforesaid unto and to and for the use and behoof of the first son lawfully begotten or to be begotten of him said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully issuing and for default of such issue to the use and behoof of the second third & all and every other son and sons of said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body and bodies of such second, third and other son and sons lawfully begotten or to be begotten severally and successively as they shall be in seniority of age and priority of Birth, that is to say the oldest of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies being always to be preferred before the younger of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies lawfully to be begotten. — And for default of such issue of my said Nephew James Bowdoin Winthrop I do give and devise all the said Estate in the town of Bowdoinham, except said two thousand Acres unto said Bowdoin College in fee simple forever. — Eighthly — I give and devise to my beforementioned affectionate wife her heirs and assigns all the personal estate of all descriptions which I may own at the time of my decease which I have not given away in the former parts of this Will, in which bequest and gift unto her I include my Bonds, mortgages, notes, specialties and public securities of all descriptions, Bank Shares, Bridge and Turnpike Shares and all the furniture in my Mansion House excepting in the drawing Room, also my Carriages and Horses for her use and benefit, and whereas certain of the obligations and contracts included in this my bequest to her of personal estate are on condition that when paid, I should convey certain Estates in said obligations or contracts described, I do therefore hereby Authorize her to make execute and deliver such deeds and conveyances in law as I could make if living, without applying to any Court of law for license therefor.—And whereas I have made this provision that my said wife might not be troubled with the management of too much Real Estate, I do hereby express that all the bequests and devises made to her in this will are upon condition that she abide by said provisions and release her dower in my Real Estate and confirm if need be, the several conveyances of estate formerly belonging to her but which she and I conveyed to Phebe Oliver and which said Phebe Oliver conveyed unto me so that the same should make part of my estate hereby given and devised as my own.—But as to the Estate in Milk Street in the occupation of my friend Thomas Lindal Winthrop in Boston, I consider as still belonging to her, she never having joined in any alienation thereof, and in addition thereto I give and devise unto her and her heirs that piece of land which I purchased of Appleton Prentiss now inclosed with that Milk Street estate and a right of passageway eight feet and a half wide down the yard now occupied by Thomas Kilby Jones as by reference to said Prentiss's Deed will appear.—And Ninthly—I give and devise to my said two nephews James Bowdoin Winthrop and James Temple Bowdoin their Heirs Executors Administrators and assigns all the rest and residue of my estate, not disposed of in any former part of this Will. . . .—And Lastly—I do nominate constitute and appoint the before mentioned Thomas Lindal Winthrop and Richard Sullivan Esquires Executors of this my last Will and Testament.—And now upon examining the foregoing five pages, I find that James Bowdoin Winthrop is called of Harvard College in Cambridge which is a mistake, he being of Bowdoin College in Brunswick; I also find an omission of an intended devise of my estate in Dorchester in the County of Norfolk to my Nephew James

Temple Bowdoin.—I now hereby give and devise to him all my Houses Buildings Lands and Estate in said Dorchester to hold to him said James Temple Bowdoin and his heirs and assigns forever.—And in witness of this my last Will & Testament upon this and five preceding pages I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eleven.

JAMES BOWDOIN L. S.

Signed sealed published and declared by said Honorable James Bowdoin Esquire as and for his last Will and Testament in our presenee who in presence of him and of each other subscribe this as witnesses hereof the words” “& ten” being first inserted after the Word nine in the fourth line from the bottom of the third page.

Appendix.

Will of John Newgate. (GEN. REG. XIII. 333.)

“25 of Nov. 1664. Debts being paid and funerells discharged, I give vnto my wife, Ann Newgate, my farme at Rumly Marsh, with all my lands belonging there vnto, and my house at Charles towne, with the orchard there vnto belonging, and my house in which I now dwell, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, and the house in which my sonne in lawe, Simon Linde, now dwells in, with all the ground thereto belonging, during her naturall life, she the said Ann continueing in the state of widdowhoode, payeing vnto the Colledge in Cambridge, the sume of five pounds p^r ann. during the said tyme of her widdowhowde, for the security of which payment my said farme is already bound and ingaged. But if my said wife should happen to marry againe, then my will and mind is, That she shall haue onely the thirds of all my said houses and lands in Boston and of my said farme at Rumly Marsh, but not the thirds of my said house and land at Charles towne, for that the said annuall pay to the Colledge is after such marriage of her, the said Ann, to bee paid by others. I give vnto my sonn, Nathaniell Newgate, my said farme, with all the lands there vnto belonging, and my house and ground at Charles towne, for him, his heires and assignes, to possesse and enjoy them, next and ymmediately after such marriage of her, the said Ann, as is afore-said, or otherwise next and ymmediately after her decease, if she continue in the state of widdowhoode, he my said sonn, Nathaniell, his heirs and assignes payeing the said annuall payment of £5 to the Colledge, next and ymmediately after he shall possesse and enjoy the said farme, in lew of which annuall payment I give him my said house and ground at Charlestowne, also yeilding and payeing vnto my said wife one third part of the rent of the saide farme, during her life, after such marriage as aforesaid. I give vnto my said sonne in law, Simon Lind ,my said house in Boston, in which I now dwell, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, and my said house in which he the said Lind now dwells, with all the ground thereto belonging, for him, his heiers, and assigns, to possess and enjoy next & ymmediately after the decease of Ann, my wife, or otherwise after such marriage of the said Ann, yeilding and payeing vnto her during her life a third part of the annual rents or profitts thereof. Also £220 within six moneths after hee shall possesse said houses and lands, videlt £110 to my sonn in law, Peeter Olliver, that married with my daughter Sarah, and the other £110 vnto my sonn in law, Edward Jackson, that married with my daughter Elizabeth. And if either my said sonne Jackson, or my said sonn Olliver shall depart this life before their said legacies shalbe payable, as aforesaid, then my will and mind is, that the £110 shalbe equally divided betweene the Children of the said Elizabeth, and the other £110, betweene the Children of the said Sarah. I give vnto my grand Children, John Olliver and Thomas Olliver, sonnes of John Olliver, deceased, £20, (£10 to each) To be paid them when they shall accomplish their severall ages of 20 yeares, And in case either of them depart this life before he has accomplished his said age, Then that son which survive shall haue the others portion. I give to all the Children now liveing that my daughter, Elizabeth, had by the said Edward Jackson, her now husband, £10 a peece, to be paid vnto the said Edward, their father, or Elizabeth, their Moother, which of them shalby then liveing, within one yeare after my decease, and they to ymprove it for their said Children, vntill they shall accomplish their severall ages of 18 yeares, or dayes of marriage, which shall first happen, And in case any of them shall depart this life before they attayne their severall ages of 18 or dayes of marriage, then those Children which survive shall haue the others portion proportionably divided amongst them. I give to all the children now liveing, that my daughter Sarah, had by the said Peeter Olliver, her now husband, £10 a peece, (conditionally given as to the other Children, and contingencies provided for.) Vnto all the children, now liveing, that my daughter, Hanna had by my sonn in law, Simon Lynd, £18 a peece (on like conditions with the other grand children) To the child, now liveing, of my sonne, Nathaniell Newgate, £10 to bee paid twoe yeare after my decease, hee to improve the same for his said childs vse, vntill he accomplish the age of 18 yeares, or day of marriage. To my brother in law, Thomas Townsin, of Lin, £10 to be paid him within 3 yeares after my decease. Vnto my wifes sister, that married with Willinam Newgate, my Vnkels sonn, liveing in London, £5, to be paid within one yeare after my decease. To Jonathan Jackson, sonn of the said Edward Jackson, £5, within half a yeare after my decease.
